

MONTE VELHO

White Wine 2018

Regional Alentejano

Concept: A wine for every occasion. With a balanced and gastronomic profile, it offers the best aromas and flavours of Alentejo grapes.

Harvest: After a dry and cold winter, a rainy spring followed, restoring the proper moisture levels in the soil to initiate the vegetative cycle. The fact that temperatures in the spring, and until mid-summer, were milder than in previous years, somewhat delayed the entire cycle, but enabled good plant development. At the beginning of August, a heat wave that lasted five consecutive days, with temperatures above 43 degrees and strong gusts of wind, caused severe damage to the varieties that are more sensitive to this type of weather, leading to production losses. However, most of our vineyards, where varieties better adapted to these conditions predominate, ripened slowly and regularly, ideal to preserve the freshness and aromatic intensity of the white wines, and texture, concentration and complexity of the red wines.

Agriculture: Soil Type: Granite/schist origin with clay/loam structure. Vineyard age: 18 years.

Grape Varieties: Antão Vaz, Roupeiro, Perrum & others.

Vinification: Destemming, must chilling, pressing, must decantation, temperature controlled fermentation in stainless steel tanks, centrifugation, stabilisation and filtration.
